

THE ORKNEY HOTEL WHISKY MENU

ORKNEY MALTS

Orkney's rugged and windswept character has shaped some of Scotland's most distinct and warming malt whiskies.

Highland Park 12yr (40%)

From Scotland's northernmost distillery comes a full flavoured Malt. With a nose of malt, sherry and peat, a palate of smoke, heather and other earthy elements.

Highland Park 15yr (43%)

Highland Park 15 has a remarkable complex nose with notes of camphor, peat and citrus fruits and flowers. The drying sensation on the finish leaves a rich smoky feeling and the immediate desire to refill your glass.

Highland Park 18yr (43%)

Burnished gold in colour with a rich, mature oak and aromatic smoke aroma. It has a rich, full flavour, honey and peat taste and a soft, round and long finish.

Highland Park 21yr (47.5%)

Drawing its incredible character from predominantly American oak casks which have been seasoned with sherry, this 21 year old is a truly dynamic whisky with an intensely fruity and spicy centre, surrounded by complex layers of candied orange peel, dark chocolate and rich, slightly drier smoke. A malt that rewards patience and delivers experience like no other.

Highland Park 25yr (50.7%)

With its golden dark red colour and very rich, mature oak, chocolate fudge aroma, this whisky is universally acclaimed, by the critics as one of the great single malts. It has a full, rich burst of flavours, soft honey and nutty toffee and a long and surprisingly sweet finish for its age.

Highland Park 30yr (48.1%)

30 years ago after deciding to lay down the casks that would go on to become the heart of this exceptional whisky and over these 3 decades, the whisky maturing inside them has developed an outstanding balance, with a seductive sweetness and extremely delicate smoke. Treating this whisky with respect will reward you with breath taking results: Characteristic fudge sweetness comes together with complex aromatic spices and dark chocolate orange. It has a drying finish, leaving a gentle smoky flavour and an incredible lengthy finish.

Highland Park 40yr (48.3%)

First released in 2008, this is the oldest permanent expression of Highland Park and is the culmination of years of their finest whisky making experience. A beautiful balance of sweet toffee notes, dark chocolate, sun-dried orange zest and heather peat smokiness all leading to a rich, long smoky and surprisingly sweet finish.

Highland Park Leif Eriksson (40%)

Thought to have been born in Iceland circa AD970, the courageous Leif Eriksson set out from the Orkney Islands north of mainland Scotland at the dawn of the 11th century to make the perilous crossing the North Atlantic. Highland Park Leif Eriksson is a tribute to the bravery of the early explorer. The Palate is sweet with soft vanilla notes and barley sugar notes with hints of grape and gentle wafts of smoke. A sweet finish that is balanced by a drying Orcadian peat smoke.

Highland Park Ice Edition (53.9%)

Vivid aromas of cool, fresh pineapple and ripe mango sorbet come to life - in this celebration of glacial character. Silvery shards of smoke give way to the frosty kick of root ginger. Like the Ice Giants themselves, the palate is powerful yet mellifluous. In true Highland Park style, the combination of a silvery, misty peat smoke is inter-twined with pearlescent vanilla seeds and overtones of molten orris root. Beautifully balanced, the creamy, rich, oily finish snowballs into long lingering woodiness and dry feverish spices.

Highland Park – Dark Origin (46.8%)

Inspired by the cunning spirit and courageous personality of Highland Park's infamous founder, Magnus Eunson. Well-balanced, dry peat at first mellowing out to maraschino cherries with hints of dark chocolate that entices the palate. Enduring sweet smoky finish.

This Jutland edition captures the character of the Orkney Isles, their shimmering seas and dramatic history surrounding them. Crafted the Orcadian way, using traditional methods. This single cask has been matured exclusively in first-fill American oak casks for 16 years, resulting in a heather-honeyed single malt which is intensely fruity and perfectly balanced. Bottle No: 134/

ISLAY MALTS

Islay whisky is a product of its windswept home – the southernmost of the Western Isles. Islay is flat, green and largely covered in peat – which both flavours and colours the water. The peat is, in turn, flavoured by salt spray which is driven far inland by the winter gales.

Ardbeg 10yr (46%)

Jim Murray's 2008 World Whisky of the Year! When Ardbeg 10 was released it was the first expression from the distillery not to be chill-filtered. It's a true classic from Islay. A whirlwind of peat and complex malty flavours fill the palate with a long and smoky sweet finish.

Ardbeg Uigeadail (54.2%)

Wining 7 awards since 2009, Uigeadail derives from the Scotch Gaelic for 'Dark and Mysterious Place' and is named for the Loch from whence Ardbeg draws its waters. this cask-strength bottle exudes breathtaking balance of Ripe fruit, Black forest honey, peat and smoked barley.

Bowmore Islay, 12yr (40%)

Peat, water, wood, people and tradition accumulate to create the subtle, warm and smoky character of Bowmore Islay Single Malt Scotch Whisky.

Bowmore 18 yr (43%)

A comparatively recent release from Bowmore, the 18 year old was launched in January of 2007 to replace the 17 year old. A perfumed, fruity offering from the Islay distillery.

Bruichladdich The Classic Laddie (50%)

Made from 100% Scottish barley, trickle distilled, then matured for its entire life by the shores of Loch Indaal in premium American oat. The tropical fruit flavours slowly fade to leave a delicious mixture of salty vanilla.

Bruichladdich Black Art 23 Yr (49.2%)

This is the 4th edition of Bruichladdich's Black Art series. The whisky is created by master distiller Jim McEwan and the composition is a secret. All we know is aged in a combination of American and French oak. Rich and heady with clean aromas of red-berry fruits, followed by honeycomb and toffee crisp continues to the finish.

Bruichladdich Octomore (57%)

The world's most heavily peated whisky. This is the 6th edition of the uber-experimental cult octomore. Titanic amount of Peat but with a light, delicate complexity and beguiling finess. young, yet eminently mature.

Bruichladdich – Port Charlotte Scottish Barley (40 ppm) (50%)

Caol Ila 12yr (43%)

This 12 year old is the entry level bottling from the Caol Ila distillery, launched in June of 2002 this expression is light and fresh with that distinctive Caol Ila smoke.

Caol Ila 2001 Moscatel Finish (43%)

Taking their regular smoky malt and finishing it in sweet Moscatel- wine casks for an extra depth of sweetness. A long, rich finish with complex notes of warm peat and cinnamon spice that come from the palate. Bottled in 2013.

Caol Ila 17 Year Old 1997 Unpeated (Special Release 2015)(55.9%)

A limited edition, natural cask strength Caol Ila which is produced from a batch created once a year from unpeated malt. The oldest Caol release of its kind and limited to a few thousand bottles worldwide. An unusually rounded older unpeated Caol Ila, the most mature yet released in this series: a little less 'full on' than previous expressions, it still has all their fruity sharpness, hints of smoke and the sea, grainy cereals and bittersweet tannins, and becomes soft, harmonious and welcoming with water.

Frasers Reserve Islay (40%)

A full bouquet of aromas, smoky, peaty with floral (lavender) notes. There is also a slight sweetness reminiscent of honeycomb. The palate is dry and smoky, slowly developing a medicinal edge.

Kilchoman Machir Bay 2014 release (46%)

Named after the most spectacular beach on Islay, Machir Bay is the flagship of the Kilchoman range. Machir Bay is a unique and complex combination of ex-bourbon barrels and Oloroso sherry butts. The Machir Bay range was first launched in 2012 when it won the prestigious IWSC 2012 Gold Award – Best in Class. Machir Bay has a beautiful balance of vanilla, smokey butterscotch and rich fruitiness each contributing in complexity and combining to create a truly unique Islay dram.

Lagavulin 16 yr (43%)

A much sought-after single malt with the massive peat-smoke that's typical of southern Islay – but also offering richness and dryness that turns into a truly interesting dram.

Lagavulin 1997 Pedro Ximenez finish (43%)

From the Lagavulin distillery on the island of Islay comes the 1997 Distillers Edition, a fantastic single malt which has been maturing since 1997 and enjoyed a finishing period in Pedro Ximénez cask before being bottled in 2013. Thick and honeyed with characteristic smoky notes

Laphroaig 10yr (40%)

A rich flavoured malt - it has an earthy aroma of blue peat smoke, the sweet nuttiness of the barley and the delicate, heathery perfume of Islay's streams.

Laphroaig 15yr (43%)

Laphroaig 15 year old was first released in the 1980s. The resulting flavour soon became a firm favourite winning many awards and was chosen for the famous 'Erskine Charity Bottling' in 2000 when 270 bottles were drawn from a single 15 year old cask signed by HRH The Prince of Wales for this charity of which he is a patron. Zesty oak and warm peat smoke top notes, with sweet undertones, reminiscent of fresh nutmeg and toasted almonds. A smoother and more elegant elder sibling to the robust 10 year-old.

SmokeHead (43%)

SmokeHead is a rich, seaweedy and intensely peaty whisky. The flavours are fresh, fruity and immense, with notes of sherry, iodine, toffee, smoke and sea salt, all fighting for recognition.

Smokey Joe: (46%)

Without a doubt, this whisky showers the senses with smoke and peaty impressions and yet, overall, one is left with a feeling of tranquil fulfilment, reflecting the balance and subtly complexity therein. Islay malts take their characteristics both from the peat used to dry the barley and their closeness to the sea. These factors, typically, imbue the malts with a distinctive sea-weedy, phenolic and peaty flavour.

ISLAND MALTS

The Arran 10 yr (46%)

Fresh Citrus and honey taste followed by creamy notes of vanilla, coconut and butterscotch. Crisp and malty with a touch of hazelnut, with a mellow finish.

Glenmorangie 7 Milsean 46%

Glenmorangie Milsean is the seventh release from their very popular Private Edition range. This time, Dr Bill Lumsden and his team have taken inspiration from sweetshops and all their wondrous confectioneries to create this limited edition expression, using whisky which was initially matured in ex-bourbon casks and then matured further in flamed-toasted casks which previously held Portuguese wine. The name Milsean comes from the Scots Gaelic for 'Sweet Things'. Cinnamon spice begins to develop in the palate, alongside yellow plum, melon and more coconut. Subtly oak-y, but the focus here is on the fruity sweetness, which hints more towards orange segments as it goes on leading to An intriguing balance of sweetness and spice to finish.

Inchmurrin 12 yr (46%)

It is somewhat fitting that the 'grassy isle' lends its name to the exquisite 12 year old single malt with floral notes of peach blossom, pear, golden barley and vanilla. Aged in 3 types of cask carefully selected by hand – bourbon, refill and re-charred – these whiskies are then brought together to deliver a perfectly balanced single malt

Inchmurrin 18 yr: (46%)

Named after an island rich in meadow and woodland, this 18 year old has a strong oak character, with its hints of summer grass, tropical fruits and zesty citrus notes. Matured in the finest hand selected casks for a minimum of 18 years allowing time and nature to bring out the sweeter character of the wood.

Invergordon 7 yr (40%)

The only grain whisky distilled in the highlands of Scotland, and is made with the granite-run Highland water so highly valued in the making of single malts. The Invergordon also shares with single malts the distinction that comes only after lengthy maturation in oak casks in the soft Highland airstream. A unique whisky, with all the mellowness of a single malt, but with a lighter, fresher taste and a colour like distilled sunlight.

Loch Lomond Original 40%

Distilled from Scotland's finest ingredients and carefully matured in, before being married in the finest old oak casks for the perfect harmony of flavour and aromas. The result is an elegant and full bodied whisky with a hint of smoke and peat and smoothness making this exceptionally easy to drink.

Macduff 2000 – Connoisseurs Choice (46%) – Gordon & MacPhail

Macduff distillery was established in the early 1960s, by a consortium of Glasgow-based whisky brokers and businessmen. This particular expression from Macduff Distillery was matured in Refill American Hogsheads. The whiskey has stewed pear and peach aromas with a touch of sweet vanilla. Tormore 12yr (40%)

Launched in 2004 this is the main official bottling of Tormore, part of the Chivas Brothers portfolio of distilleries. Clean, fresh aromas of cut hay and stemmy grass with hints of pine, tasted barley and spices. The palate is of medium-body and very smooth, with notes of Dundee marmalade with fresh zesty note. There are hints of slightly sour grape, fresh hay/grass, barley sugar and a soft oak. The finish is of good length with a touch of oak and hay.

LOWLAND MALTS

Untempered by Highland peatiness or coastal brine and seaweed the Lowland malts have a typically dry finish, which makes them an excellent aperitif. The dryness comes from the malt and not the peat (Lowlands ten to use unpeated malt) and this also lends a certain sweet fruitiness to the flavour and the mouthfeel. Their aromatic intensity is low and tends to be grassy or herbal with grainy and floral notes.

Auchentoshan 10 yr (40%)

A traditional triple distilled Lowland malt from a distillery lying at the foot of the old Kilpatrick hills alongside the Clyde - fruity, sweet and delicate with a surprising depth of character. Appreciated for its lightness and accessibility for those new to malts
